

Edna Faye Grady

April 21, 1944 - May 17, 2026

Edna Faye Grady, 82, passed away on May 17th, 2026, in Winter Garden, Florida. She was born to her parents, Britton and Florence Kirby, on April 21st, 1944, in Trion, Georgia. She was one of three children. Edna was a member of First Baptist Church of Webster for 30 years, where she was highly involved with the congregation. She was an avid crafter, with an array of skills; and projects spanning quilting, crochet, knitting, sewing, and needlepoint. Edna also loved to cook and bake, and was fantastic at both. After her retirement, Edna spent her time volunteering, both at her church, and also at hospice. More than anything, Edna enjoyed spending time with her family, especially adventures in nature and travel with her husband, John, and their children and grandchildren. Edna was a highly devoted mother and grandmother. She also loved her pets. Edna was preceded in death by her parents, Britton and Florence Kirby, as well as her two sons, John W. Grady III and Britton Todd Grady. She is survived by her husband John W. Grady Jr.; her sisters, Kathy McMunn and Joyce Brown; her grandsons, Dustin and Austin Grady; and many nieces and nephews. Edna's services will be held on Tuesday, May 26th, at Purcell Chapel in Bushnell, Florida. They will begin with a visitation from 11AM-12PM, and a service at 12PM.
