“ Dear Miller family: I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ Edna was my Friday Lady. When my first husband, Harold, was terminally ill, she always brought me dinner on Fridays. After Harold died, Edna was my first "date." going out to eat. She would not tell her daughters who her "date" was with. She had fun with that one. She will always be remembered as a spry, fun, lovely lady.
