

Edward A. Charlebois

February 15, 1937 - June 5, 2025

Edward A. Charlebois passed away June 5, 2025, at the age of 88. He is survived by his beloved wife Georgia Dickson Charlebois.

Edward was born in Detroit, MI on February 15, 1937 to Theodore and Betty Charlebois. He graduated from South Lake Shore High School in St. Clair Shores. Edward was a dedicated employee of Ford Motor Company for 34 years, retiring in 2000.

Growing up near Lake St. Clair, Edward loved the water. A favorite pastime was watching the freighters pass by his home on the shores of Lake Huron as he meticulously manicured the grounds. Edward's friends and family will remember him as the music loving, guitar playing man that could fix anything. In 2011, Edward made Leesburg Florida his full-time home, loving the “year-round summer” weather. There he enjoyed the last 14 years of his retirement.

Edward was predeceased by his parents, his first wife Marion (Mouton) Charlebois, and his brother Ted Charlebois. Left to cherish Edward's memory along with his beloved wife Georgia, are his sons Todd (Mary) Charlebois, Mark (Ruth) Charlebois, Marion's daughter Kimber Rollin, and Todd Dickson and Family. Edward was a cherished Grandfather and Great-Grandfather.
