“ So sorry to hear of Ed's passing. He was a long time high school friend and great football teammate. Could always count on his friendship and dependability. Sincere condolences to his family.

“ Ed was a dear friend. I will miss his sense of humor and litany of one-liners and of course our many football conversations.

“ Will always remember Ed's positive attitude and uplifting spirit. And, of course, he was a shark at the poker tables.
