“ Dude and my Dad were lifelong friends going back to their teen years. Both were in the used car business in different ways. He knew my Dad's oddities so well. He was a funny story teller! He would pat you on the arm or leg as he was telling the story and say, "listen to this." I laughed alot with him. Always he and Jackie were so hospitable. He had one of my guitars signed by his friend, the late great Ray Price. He loved the Lord, and now is with Him. You lucky Dude. I will miss him. Jackie, my heartfelt condolence.

“ Ed,

I am sorry for your loss. I know how important your father was to you and that his passing will leave a hole that cannot be filled, but I hope your memories of him and sharing those memories with your family and friends brings comfort in an otherwise terrible time.

Words cannot alleviate any of your and your family's pain, but I wish you solace in knowing he lived a wonderful life and is now with God and at peace.

Please do let me know anything I can do for you or your family during this difficult time.

“ Dude was one of the best people I ever had the pleasure to meet. He called my husband Larry Mullins, his nephew, several times a week for 2 years after his Cancer diagnosis to help keep his hopes up of beating the disease. Larry loved him like a brother and respected him like a dad. I know they're having a blessed reunion in Heaven right now. After my husbands death, Dude kept in touch with me just to talk and check to see how I was. Always happy and cheerful and full of news from Leesburg. I loved him and know I'll see him again one day.
