

Edward Rucinski

September 2, 1924 - June 5, 2021

Edward E. Rucinski of Leesburg, Florida passed away at his home in Golfview at The Plantation on June 5, 2021. He was preceded in death by his wife, Joyce Rucinski, in 2014. He was the youngest of seven children; John, Ted, Adam Emil, Mary Charles, and Irene. He is survived by Irene in Massachusetts as well as several nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews all around the country. Edward was a WWII veteran of the US Marine Corps, serving in the South Pacific. He then worked for the US Postal Service in Massachusetts until he fulfilled his dream of retiring to sunny Florida in 1979. He and his wife loved all animals. They enjoyed the horses, dogs, and cats that were part of their family throughout their lives together.