“ My sincere condolences to your family. Working with Jeff I know what a great man he was. Jeff never tired of tell us how much he enjoyed going to Europe with his dad and the fun they had. Bless you all and rejoice in all your loving memories.

“ To Jo and Family; When I received a call on Tuesday from Nella, I was devastated and broken hearted! Ed had become such a wonderful friend, constantly checking on my health, mentoring me in my Christian Walk! Also, our breakfast ever two months having a !/2 order of Biscuits and Gravy at the Sunshine Grill while we discussed the events of the day and of course politics! I will never forget "my brother Ed."

“ Dear Jo,
We are saddened to hear of Ed's passing. We treasure our friendships in times together in past years. I wish that we could have stayed near each other. Ed was a super guy and you were a maker of such. Thanks you for your service to me as a minister at Lake Square Presbyterian Church. Your friendship was a joy. God be with you every step through this hurt and know that Ed is with Jesus Christ in heaven. Love, Jerry and Beverly Little
