“ Muriel, Dayle and I went to the funeral home yesterday to take care of a lot of the arrangements surrounding Ed's passing. Here is the obituary they have written. Wanted you to see this. I had an opportunity to spend some time with Ed's body to say my goodbyes. I'm glad I'm here providing some assistance to Dayle.

“ Ed was our brother in law. (Don is Dayle's brother) We shared a lot of family events and good times with him. He loved to talk about cruising and all the places they had been. He always had an interesting story ready. He will be missed greatly. Don & Cookie Polly

“ We miss Ed already. Dayle is my lifelong friend. The four of us had a couple of memorable vacations together and we all shared the beauty of travel and learning. Ed was a wonderful and generous host. He and Dayle always opened their doors and their hearts to family and friends. He was bigger than life. Our love to Dayle, Cookie and Don.

“ Ed was my stepfather, and a very helpful one at that. He ALWAYS wanted to be helpful and give good advise. He really cared that you were happy and doing things that you wanted to be doing, and that you always had everything that you needed. Things that come to mind when I think back on Ed is the fun times traveling with him and my mom. How he helped me pick out my dream car and sat with me for hours signing the paperwork and making sure all was legit. He helped me move under tremendous stress, and kept his cool. He enjoyed and played with his new Grandson, and loved showing him so many new things. He was a great Grandfather and Stepfather and I will miss him. RIP Ed!

“ I'm deeply saddened that I lost my dear stepson, Eddie. In the past few years we have been in contact re the phone and internet. More importantly, I was married to his father, Edwin F. Haase, for 34 years and loved being a part of the Haase family. My days will be longer now that I don't have Eddie to talk to. I loved him and admired him greatly. Thank the dear Lord for Dayle's wonderful love and concern for our Eddie.

“ Oh cuz Eddie how I remember the 'old days' as kids, all the times we shared on family vacations in Chicago or California. Then later you are the one who convinced Tom to cruise, now you have him hooked. Fond memories of the cruises we were able to join you & Dayle...& family. I am so grateful I had the chance to talk w you a couple wks ago. You will truly be missed & our hearts break for Dayle. Thanks Dayle for all your love & devotion for my cuz Eddie....we love you both!!

“ "Ed the boy", was a mischevious but caring kid. Three years younger than me and living right across the street while we were growing up, one could get so angry at him though not for long when he gave you that impish grin. Despite the slight age difference, we climbed trees and got into mischief together. I wish I could look you in the eye and say how much I did enjoy those years. Dayle, my prayers are with you and his brothers Ron an Bob
