

Eleanor Forget

September 23, 2013

Obituary of Eleanor Forget

Eleanor M. Forget, 81, of The Villages, was a music teacher in Massachusetts and a media assistant at Harbor View Elementary in Summerfield, Florida. Ms. Forget retired from public education at the age of 70 to enjoy The Villages lifestyle, including playing golf, cards, pool, and Bingo. She was a member and an usher at St. Timothy Catholic Church.

She is survived by her brother Alfred J. Menard, dean at James Madison Univ., and her children: Henri A. Forget of Leesburg, FL; Carol A. Forget of NYC; Linda M. Forget of Sunderland, MA; Michael A. Forget of Easthampton, MA; granddaughters Michelle Forget, Catherine Forget and grandson Christopher Forget.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Timothy at 8:30 am, Saturday Oct. 5, 2013 for all who knew "Ellie."

Services

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Timothy at 8:30 am, Saturday Oct. 5, 2013 for all who knew "Ellie."