

Elizabeth Lorraine Dorsett

December 16, 1957 - March 27, 2023

Elizabeth Lorraine Dorsett, age 65, went on to be with her Lord at her residence dying peacefully in her sleep. She was born on December 16, 1957 in Tewksbury, Mass. to Robert Lee Berry and Janice Marian (LaFleur) Berry. From an early age, she was drawn to entertain and sing. One of her earliest performances was playing “Bloody Mary” in South Pacific when she was in sixth grade. It would be her calling for the rest of her life, singing in pop and wedding bands, choirs, and musical theater. It was her passion, but her real gift to all who knew her was her generosity and kindness. She loved organizing parties, trips, cruises or just getting together with family and friends. She was always the life of the party lighting up the room wherever she went. Earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing, she used those talents to help non-profit foundations and international manufacturing businesses to succeed in their mission and work. She transferred those skills to self-employment work designing websites for smaller businesses, including her mother’s canine rescue business. Finally reaching retirement, she and her husband moved from New England to sunny Florida where her passion for meeting and building new friendships, joining entertainment organizations and creating social couples’ groups blossomed beyond her wildest dreams.

She loved her 15 grandchildren so much. She loved spending anytime with them whether it was having them visit or her visit or camping, swimming, Trick or Treating - you name it... She also loved to hold family and friends’ gatherings at our home. She was a great cook and baker, loved to travel, go on cruises, visit friends' houses, spend time with and serve others. She loved taking care of her two cats, was always concerned about animals, wanted to buy and do things for our home that were environmentally-friendly. She just loved doing the right things in every aspect of her life.

Elizabeth is survived by her husband George Dorsett of The Villages, FL, her mom Janice Berry, dad and stepmother Robert and Jane Berry, sisters Darleen Eaton, Susan Ochoa, Jennifer Bernier, and Stephanie Laskiewicz, brother Walter LaFleur, daughters Carolyn Camacho, Valerie Sargent, Jamie St. Armand, and Candace Lord, and her fifteen grandchildren.

A 'Celebration of Life' gathering will be held on April 2nd from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the Bradley Room at the Eisenhower Recreation Center, 3560 Buena Vista Blvd, The Villages, FL 32163. This is a potluck event so please bring a dish to pass around. Coffee, Water and Lemonade will be provided. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Cancer Society.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home of Lady Lake, Florida.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Liz. She will be missed for her vibrant joy and gorgeous voice. I was fortunate to sing with her in the Granite State Choral Society, and especially the Chamber Singers group. Her solos were always exquisite. Deepest condolences to the family.

“ At a backyard event Liz was asked to sing. Holding the microphone while waiting for the song to begin, she made the sign of the cross. I took from that to mean she understood her talents were God given. Now she can continue to use her talents for the One who gave them to her.

“ I have some very sad news to report. It is with a heavy heart that I try to express what kind of a person my sister she was. She was the oldest of my siblings and had just recently retired and moved to the villages in Florida with her husband George Dorsett . She was definitely in her element down south participating, organizing and involving herself in the social life that her new community offered. I think anybody that ever met her would never forget her because she was the light that lit the room. Things just won't be the same without her being part of our lives.

Liz, I still remember the day we met at a Newbees event in The Villages, you were waiting for George to move in with you Full Time, it gave us some extra hanging girl time. You are such an amazing lady, with a wonderful family, great career, exceptional singing and acting abilities. You will always live in my heart, our memories will remain alive forever. I love you sweet Liz, gone but Never Forgotten ❤️❤️
