“ Merlene and family; My most sincere condolences on the passing of your mother. She was so beautiful in so many ways. She was always dressed to the nine's, and her beautiful smile and soft demeanor made it a pleasure to talk with her. Her kindness came so natural to her, so I know she had a heart of gold. I knew she had battled through some difficult issues, but I was very surprised to learn of her passing. I will miss our periodic chats and her perfect smile. Mostly though, I am so sorry that I never had a chance to say good-bye. May the good Lord be by your side as you mourn her loss. Respectfully, Dick Sheehan

“ How sad it was to see the passing of this beautiful soul in the paper yesterday morning. I met "Lis-a" awhile back at the Lynnhaven post office while we both were getting our mail and found a new chum immediately. Always looking spectacular - with her hair fixed perfectly and dressed stunning. A kind word passed as we got our mail ... a smile .. and a promise that we had to find time for lunch soon. We never did though .. and for that I'm reflecting on the "should have" moments that pass by too quickly undone. I did look forward to seeing her, and often wondered if she was ok when there were gaps in our encounters. Neither of us had the other's phone number or address ... however, I shall truly miss the moments our lives crossed as they were always joyful and happy ... and extend my most heartfelt condolences to her family.

“ We know her as "Liz'e" in the Fletcher Music family. She was also a member of our Organ Social Club. We first saw her grocery shopping at Publix in Colony Plaza. While we didn't know her at the time, we both noted how well dressed and color coordinated she was. We next saw her at Fletcher Music and got to know her a little more. She had attended several of the socials at the end of the month meetings. One time at Fletcher's, we were seated for the usual Saturday concert and she came in with one of her daughters. There were two seats next to us so Liz'e came in and gave me a big hug! I was a bit surprised as this was a "first" for me coming from her. She later admitted to me that it was a mistake and she apologized. I told her that hugs are free and she could pass them out to me anytime. We will miss her. Our sympathies to her family.
