“ Such a loss to the family. We loved her so much, she so loved the family get togethers. She's at peace now probably chasing Uncle Edward around in heaven wondering what fishing hole he's going to next. We love you. Stanley and Gail

“ Our thoughts are with all of the family at this time. Elna was such an optimistic, outgoing person. She made you enjoy just being around her. We have such good memories of the time she and John spent with us in Houston.

“ My condolences to the Odom family. I worked with Elna at Sprint for several years and enjoyed being her friend. She was a lot of fun, and husband John was so very nice too. Now they are together again. I'm sure you all have many memories to share with each other. God Bless you all. Nancy , Ellijay, Ga.
