“ Pat was a very special lady. I knew her from my years working in the Belleview Library where she was one of our star volunteers. Always willing to lend a hand, Pat brought smiles whenever she was around...and even when she wasn't. I still have a couple of bookmarks she made for me pinned to my office bulletin board where they always make me smile when I see them. Even after I left Belleview, Pat stayed in touch, letting me know about books of interest and library happenings. The world is diminished without her in it.
