“ Grandma I miss you so much with all my heart. I was glad to be the only one by your side when you passed and said it's ok to go and you said I love you and went peacefully I still remember that day well just me there. I wish you were here to hug me now I am dealing with a whole mess cleaning it up little by little. Tired of being abused and used
Till we meet again soon I love you

God and the holy Spirit gave me the permission thanks to you being my angel and I started cleaning peoples long time of life with abuse and etc up you should be proud of me as you said do. Unlift my veil show them the real side I can be since I was made out bad all the time and abused. I'm tired of protecting people anymore.
