“ How sad I am to hear of Gene's passing. He was certainly one of the favorites of the Earle Madden's. I remember my parents telling me so many stories of Gene when he was a kid. He would sometimes spend weekends in Memphis with them. They would tell of taking him to the Mid-South Fair and his amazement of cotton candy... " Uncle Dick and Aunt Esther, this ain't nothing but sweet air" They loved the time they spent with him. They spoke of him frequently.
