Obituary of Emma Davies

THE VILLAGES - Emma Louise Davies, 24, passed away on October 31st at Orlando Regional Medical Facility following an accident from which she did not recover.

Emma was born in St. Asaph, Wales, U.K., on July 21st 1989, the second child of Eddie and Elizabeth Davies. She grew up in the small village of Market Bosworth before moving to Manchester to study for a Bachelors in Performance and Production.

She emigrated to the States with her family soon after graduating in 2010 and settled in the Villages, during which time she did freelance television production work, traveling to New York and Texas to work on documentaries, though most Villagers would know her as the cute English girl who worked at Izod, City Fire, MVP and Bonifay Country Club. At the time of her death, she was studying to become a teacher.

Emma is survived by her older brother Edwin, her boyfriend Taylor Boyd, and her parents.

A memorial service will be held at Beyers Funeral Home, 134 N. Hwy 27/441, Lady Lake at 11 AM on Thursday, November 7, 2013. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Emma Davies Memorial Fund at Wells Fargo.

“ We are sincerely sorry for your loss...so tragic...may the following provide a small amount of comfort in this time of sorrow and loss. When death comes and whispers to me, "Thy days are ended," let me say to him, "I have lived in love and not in mere time." He will ask, "Will thy songs remain?" I shall say, "I know not, but this I know that often when I sang I found my eternity." Rabindranath Tagore, Fireflies, 1928 Many blessings and condolences.
