“ God, through Emma has softened many hearts. And although it is our loss through this I pray it will be someone's gain. We did not choose or give Emma willingly but now we understand more than ever the love of God, for he willingly gave His Only begotten son, for the wretched man we are or were. Thank you God for your blessings and for the 2 wonderful years we shared with her. Love Nanny!

“ Justin, Laycee , and family: Chyrle and I send our condolences to your sweet family. From the time that we learned of your great loss we have not ceased to pray for you. No, though we've never experienced what you are going through, we know that our Lord Jesus Christ can be trusted. Prov. 3:5, 6 remains true. God is faithful to His Word and His people. We know that we are to trust Him with all our hearts, lean not to our own understanding, acknowledge Him in all our ways, and He shall direct our paths. May God be realized in your lives daily. May many come to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ as a result of Emma's homegoing! She is safe in Heaven, and we Believers will soon follow! With our Love, Prayers, and Thanksgiving to God for you all!
