“ Still till this day I am heart broken by this. You are and always will be my favorite uncle. I never wish that day had to come. You never deserved to die so soon and I miss you so much every single day I think about you, you never leave my mind, you are forever in my hear and forever in my mind I lobe you and I wish yo could be here with me and see me on my 16th birthday but I know that your watching me from above and I wish you could be here with me to watch me and be in my life. But in some way you are, your always in my heart and never left my hear and mind, and I promise you that you are never gonna leave my mind.

“ Eric, i'll never forget the times we shared growing up when you still lived in Ohio or when I got to come hangout with you in Florida for a week and play video games and set off fireworks and do stupid stuff that cousins do! We had alot of good times together in the little bit of time we seen eachother and I will allways cherish those memories forever. Chaddi and Andy, Im very sorry for your loss and could never imagine what you might be going through. I do want you to know that im allways here for you guys if you need anything at all and I love you both. Love Allways, Josh AKA Hoss

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

“ Andy and Chaddi, Today I learned of the unfortunate and untimely death of your son Eric. There are no words to describe the utter grief that I am feeling right now, Mary and I know all too well the shock and sorrow that has been thrust on your family. I hadn't seen Eric in some time, but I remember him fondly. He was just an all around good kid. Even though he liked to make fun of my golf game and overexaggerate my slice. It is true that he was taken from you too soon, and I think you share my sentiment that it feels a little unfair that such a smart and talented young man's life has ended with so much living left to do. It's terrible, but sometimes bad things happen to good people, and Eric's death is certainly evidence of that. Right now, you are trudging through the mourning process, but with support from friends and family, I think you can find yourselves whole again. During this difficult time for your family, I would like to extend a helping hand if you will have it. I think of you as a brother Andy, so please don't hesitate to call me for any reason.

“ I am so grateful to have known and play golf with Eric. It's been 3 wonderful years, I wish I met Eric earlier in my life. People enter our lives for any number of reasons. Eric entered mine and forever changed it. I am so proud to have met Eric and the entire Baker family. I am a better person b/c of him. I will always cherish and love him for it. Peace be with you, my friend. GOD Bless you.

“ Andy & Chatti, I wish there were words to describe the sorrow I feel for you at this time of your lives. Eric meant so much to me. I am happy to have had the chance to watch him grow in Golf and from a young boy to a man. He was a smiler and brought a smile to my face always. And he was one of the reasons I broke out into a business of my own. He aided me in getting it started and for that I am ever thankful. He was a hard worker. I will miss him greatly. If there is anything I can ever do for you, just reach out and I'll be there. Ron Musgrave

“ Chaddi and Andy, I just heard from my son Brian that your son Eric passed away. My heart breaks for you both. It's been many years since I saw your family. I fondly remember our visits to Phil's house in Georgetown . Eric was just an adorable little guy back then. It sounds like Eric turned into a very fine young man. God bless you both.
