

Erma R. Banker

October 16, 1928 - March 7, 2015

Obituary of Erma Banker

Erma R. Banker, born October 16, 1928, the daughter of the late Newell Lambert and Sarah Stryker Lambert and wife of the late Arthur M. Banker for 49 years, passed away March 7, 2015. Erma was employed by Jersey Central Power & Light, Flemington, NJ, retiring in 1989 after 27 years. She was active in Flemington United Methodist Church until retiring to Florida and joining Morrison United Methodist Church in Leesburg where she sang in the choir and attended services for 23 years. She was active in the Flemington Elks Ladies Auxiliary serving as president and treasurer. She was an avid golfer in retirement at Continental Country Club where she resided in Wildwood, FL. She also sang in the Continental Singers choral group for many years.

She was predeceased by her Sister Jean Lambert Titus and husband George and was a loving mother to daughters Nancy Sheppard and husband David of Stanley NY and Melody Clark and husband Edmund of Easley SC, sons Arthur D. Banker and wife Tara of Lambertville, NJ, Bruce and Jamie Banker of Owensboro, KY. She was a grandmother to Scott & Daniel Sheppard, Ryan Banker and Kathryn Heid, Jacy Fish and Taryn Atkins and great grandmother to Kaylee, and Ashlyn.

A memorial service will be held at the Magnolia Room, Continental Country Club, Wildwood, FL on Friday, March 20 at 2:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to American Cancer Society in her name.

Tribute Wall

PF

“ Dear Banker family: My wife Winnie and I are very sorry to hear that your Mom has died. I have many great memories of our childhood on West Road and your parents were an important part of our neighborhood. I saw Artie a few days before her death and we discussed her situation. I hope all of you are well. I understand that Melody is retired- she shouldn't be-she's too young (just kidding).

Patrick Fatton - March 20, 2015 at 12:00 AM