“ Bro. Ernie was a good Christian man! He and his wife, Joan, were once a part of our Church at Croom-A-Coochee Baptist Church. We loved having them with us!! Bro. Ernie was a soft spoken man, but it came with tons of knowledge. He was probably one of the smartest men that I've ever met. Bro. Ernie was a licensed airplane ✈️ pilot and had one day invited my Husband, Randy, and I to come to the Leesburg airport and go take a flight with him. I'm not even gonna lie, I was quite nervous, scared, and having anxiety issues to begin with, because all I could remember was growing up under my Dad's preaching and how he'd say, " The Bible says, "Lo, I'll be with you...NOT high up in the. " Although, my day started out worrying, and having anxiety a little bit, it ended up being a wonderful experience!! One that I will NEVER forget, ever!!! I'm so thankful to have known Bro. Ernie! Sis. Joan, Laura and All Family, please except our sincere condolences and know that we love y'all with all our heartes!!
