“ Dear Frank & Family: We all learn what death is in our lives. We see how fragile life is, one day things are fine, the next our world has changed. We don't know what day the Lord will take us home, and what things we will leave unfinished. It hurt her deeply when Marie lost her son, however, she understood life is about change, and one needs to accept there is a heaven, and loved ones are in a better place. Marie had a great sense of humor too, loved to laugh and was dedicated to her family. She would give you the shirt off her back if you would let her. As a Mother-In-Law, Marie was a warm friend who was always looking out for her family. .. She didn't judge people, hold grudges or put on airs. People could take lessons from her in that. Marie made do the best she could with what she had, and enjoyed life and the people around her. We won't forget Marie, and know that Frank will have the heaviest burden to bear without her here anymore. But, I believe, she has taught ALL of us well, and her qualities will live on through each of us. Cynthia & Steve

“ Frank, You are certainly in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. What a blessing it is to know that Marie is with our loving savior and no longer suffering. So glad that you brought Marie to the Columbia Sunday School class reunion last year and we could all be together once again.
