“ My condolences to the Desch family. Mr. Desch was my favorite teacher at Ben Franklin and he did a great job preparing me for further studies. He was truly passionate about teaching, he made his history class exciting, interesting and relevant. I will never forget his classroom walls covered in photos of historical and current political figures. He was always enthusiastic to show us more. He wanted us to be informed citizens! He was a very bright spot in my time at Franklin. I'm so sorry for your loss.
