“ I will miss seeing Eugene. He was one of my favorite residents and would come down and get his hair cut by me. Eugene was a great guy with a wonderful memory and a kind heart. He never forgot my birthday and always asked how my kids were doing. I truly enjoyed talking to him and will miss all our conversations about nascar.

“ God Bless Eugene - he is at peace now. We loved visiting him and taking him to lunch when Rob, Annie(our dog) and I would pass through Webster on our way down South. He enjoyed everyone's company and would always call us in CT to ask how Rob's fishing was going. He had a phenomenal memory and could recite relatives birthdays, wedding anniv. dates,etc. Rest in peace. Kerry and Rob Bobick, CT
