“ Uncle Cylo was the last of my Father's siblings. He always was around to help Daddy and was Daddy's fishing partner for years.

As an Uncle he kept in touch after our Daddy passed away. I felt close to him...I felt he truly cared and loved me.

I appreciated his kindness, friendship and love.

He used to open his home for our family reunions... provide and cook the fish (along with Daddy and Aunt Wanda.)

After Aunt Karin and He were married, he called me several times just to let me know he was so happy. Then say we had to get over to visit them.

The few times we did get to be together....I made happy memories.

When I visited him last week, he was not able to get out of bed, but had that twinkle in his eyes...told me some stories and told me he would be up out of that bed and walking by the first of the year.

I know now, what he meant. He is walking with Jesus and out of that bed.

I will miss him, but I know without any doubt he is with Jesus.

I had a sort of so called vision last night that as Uncle Cylo entered heaven, his mother (Grandma Twiss) met him...she was jumping up and down and with that laugh of hers was saying, "Oh my baby, my baby, my baby is here." He was all smiles and they hugged. And it was gone, just like that...but, I could hear them both clear as day. What a comfort I got from that. Jesus showed me he is home.
