“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. I have so many precious memories of Momma and Poppa Conners! They were such great role models of genuine Christians to many of us. As a young woman Momma was a great inspiration and influence in my life, gave me lots of wonderful advice. She will be greatly missed here but oh the rejoicing that must be going on in heaven! We pray that God gives all of you the peace and comfort that passes all understanding! We love you!

“ Ms. Conner was truly a remarkable, Godly lady who we were fortunate to know through our Mother, Alma Dyer. She was a "character" in the most positive sense. She shared so many of her experiences with us. She was also blessed to have one of the most devoted daughters and son in laws in Miss Edna and Pastor Bill to care for her in her final years. A privilege to know. Enjoy your Eternity with your Savior Ms. Connor. You have earned it!

“ Mammaw what a blessing you have been my entire life. You were one of the kindest and most Godly women I had the pleasure of knowing. Our church Grace Bible Baptist would have not been what it is today without the Lord you and Poppa Connor's. You will be so missed but heaven is so much sweeter with you there. Until I get there keep my mom company. I love you will see you soon.

“ My sincerest condolences to Edna and Dee in the loss of your Mom. She was quite a lady. I remember the last time you were all at church and she still sang with you. And I remember all the beautiful quilts she made for the missionaries. What a day it will be when we're all in Heaven singing with the choir! God bless you all. Ida

“ You, dear sister in the Lord, truly have left your mark in the hearts of all who knew you. Especially, in the hearts of your family. Although you now rest in your heavenly home, the love you imparted shall live on in their lives. What a divine purpose that was fulfilled because you lived.
