It's been almost a week now since you lost your loving " Mommy " and I know you must still be grieving over her as I know how close you were !

But know she is in a better place now with no more sickness and suffering and will be there to greet you someday in the future when you arrive on that joyous day in Heaven too !

I'm sure everyone will sorely miss her and I'm sorry for your loss.

“ I am so thankful for having Aunt Pete in my life. She always reminded me that my mom gave me to her right after I was born...she loved me like another daughter. She was the only one that I would let pull my loose teeth. I will never forget how much I loved her cooking until goulash night, YUCK! LOL! She was wonderful person who loved Jesus. We are so blessed to have had her in our lives. I know she is now with a bunch of amazing people, like my Dad. To all who are left behind just know that God never leaves us. He's right next to us holding our hands through this very difficult time. RIP XOXO Love you BUNCHES! Aimee
