Obituary of Evelyn Ceglie

Evelyn J. Ceglie, 87, The Villages, FL passed away peacefully on Friday, January 17, 2014. She was born June 22, 1926 in Conneaut, OH and moved to Akron, OH in 1960 before retiring to The Villages in 1988. She was Episcopalian by faith. She worked in Akron for Builders Hardware and in Mogadore for Cornwell Quality Tools. She was a bowler and golfer, loved The Villages, enjoyed the swimming pools, bingo, cards and was always ready for a trip to the casino where she was an avid slots player.

Until her illness affected her mobility, she was a regular spectator at the Saddlebrook-Buffalo Glen softball complexes. She really enjoyed watching Division 1 softball where her son Tom plays. Many players knew her and called her "Evie" or "Mom". She really loved watching, as she put it, "her boys" play ball.

She was preceded in death by her husband Leonard and grandson Thomas "T.J." Jr., brother Fred DeMarco and sister Viola DeMarco.

She is survived by her sons Len (Ellyn) and Tom (Julie) of The Villages and brother Don (Donna) of Fruitland Park; 4 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

“ So sorry to hear the news of Evie's passing. She was a wonderful second Mom and such a dear family friend. I am sure my Mom, Dad, Evie and Lenord are together and pulling a slot machine and partying up at storm. Thoughts and prayers to the Ceglie family.

The Watson Family - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM
