“ Dear Esther, I am saddened to hear of your mother's passing. Your family (dad) is included in my earliest memories of arriving in Tavares in '62. I remember your piano talent, as well. I always wanted to play piano like you did...effortlessly! Again, I am sorry for your loss and pray for God's comfort now and in the coming days.

“ Ms. Wingfield worked for many years with my Grandmother, Marion Jacobs, at the insurance agency in Eustis where they shared the same office. When I was a young boy, she would let me use some of her things from her desk like pencils and paper for drawings, as well as her notary stamp which I used to create patterns on the edges of the pictures I drew. She was a dear, dear friend of our family, and will be always be remembered fondly.

“ We will surely miss knowing that Rosalie is living nearby and that we will hear from her from time to time. She and Taz were two of the finest people we were ever acquainted with and we counted them as loyal friends. Rosalie was the person who suggested Mother's name to Mr. Cates when he was looking to hire another staff member for his insurance agency. She knew that Mother, who had not worked outside the home before, was looking for a job to be able to send my older sister on to college. Mother recalls Mr. Cates walking into our backyard while she was hanging up laundry (people used clothes lines back then) and offering her the job. She always felt that, that event was such a blessing. Esther and Vincent, our thoughts are with you now and as you travel back to Pennsylvania.
