Obituary of Faye Kotch

Madeline Faye (Payne) Kotch

Affectionately known by all as Grannie Faye

Faye Kotch, born January 20, 1927, of Lake Placid, Florida, passed away peacefully at the home of her daughter in Havana, Florida, on July 9, 2015. She was preceded in death by her parents, Fletcher and Lou Payne, husband, Nicholas Kotch, brother, Charles Payne, and sister, Charlotte Wilson.

Faye is survived by her children Barbara Peterson, Keith Kotch, and Michael Kotch. She is also survived by 7 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. Faye was a generous and giving spirit, donating to numerous organizations and charities, including those that supported war veterans and cancer research. She loved playing with her grandchildren, crocheting, and playing hymns on her piano. An adventurer at heart, never letting anything or anyone slow her down, Faye will be sorely missed by all.

Tribute Wall

NL

“ I just found out about Faye's home-going and I wanted to send my condolences. I was friends with Keith and Linda and their children at First Baptist Church Winter Park and worked with Faye and Linda in the church nursery. Faye was a real sweetheart with a smile always on her face and I've wondered about her from time to time through the years, usually when I stopped seeing her at Walmart. At least now I know she's in a beautiful place with her Jesus.
