“ I have never meet anyone like her in my life. I remember from my youth when I lived with Uncle Ronnie and Aunt Faye in Texas. They were both so very kind to me. I have never forgotten. You are sorely missed my dear Aunt. Your loving nephew. Ray.

“ Please accept my most heartfelt condolences. Faye was an unbelieve person. The Earth is a little darker now but Heaven is surely much brighter. I was privilaged to know Faye or, "Ma" as many of us called her in Highshool. She always wore a smile and had an great sense of humor. I have to wonder if she is sitting in the bleachers in heaven with my mother looking down upon us all. Of course they would be sitting apart from others like they did at our football games. They were both full of life and expressed themselves in a manner that tended to have others give them a little space. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
