“ Gordon and John, This is Faye's niece Katy in N.C. You might remember when I came down with my uncles Ed and Jack to see Faye when Bill passed away. I had been trying to reach her since April 22 to tell her that my mother Mable had passed. I am so sad to learn of Faye's death. I'm sorry for your loss and would like to hear from you if possible. Bill's son Mick is in Ft Lauderdale right now visiting Peggy. I have told him, Ed, and Jack about this sad news. We all loved Faye very much and appreciated the way she took care of Uncle Buck. She had a big impact on my life through her Christian witness! I have many fond memories of her and of playing Scrabble and covering coat hangers with Mrs. Jarrett when they visited here. My father Fred and I visited Faye and Buck in Jan. 1995, just before Daddy was diagnosed with lung cancer. At one point, Daddy asked Faye how she was able to do everything she was doing. She said she didn't know, but she quickly added that the Lord was helping her.
