MY

“ I first met Mr. Turner back in the late 80's when he came in to buy insurance from me. It was at that time I also learned he was a neighbor of mine as well! We used to pass each other during our walks down Nursery Road. We talked about Kentucky quite often and shared good conversation each time we would see one other. I remember the time that they went north and their home was broken into and vandalized severely. I remember how calm he was about that whole situation. His soft spoken nature and his "laid back" mannerism was refreshing and made it a joy to know him! I am saddened to know of the loss, but I also know that Felix Turner is a man who would not have ever wanted to be admitted to a nursing home facility and so may he rest in peace. He was loved and will be missed by many. Marsha Young and staff /Ammerman Insurance.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Turner~ I live about 5 houses up from the Turner resident, and our hearts just poured out with prayers for Mr. Turner when he was missing! I hope that the family can find peace in knowing that Mr. Turner is up in heaven looking down on them, he is in Gods hands now! He will be greatly missed in the neighborhood, everyone loved seeing him out in his yard~
