

Floyd "Travis" Farmer

March 28, 1949 - March 25, 2021

Floyd "Travis" Farmer, 71, of Webster, Florida passed away on March 25, 2021 in Dublin, North Carolina. Travis was born in Leesburg, Florida on March 28, 1949 to Jep and Warneta Farmer. Travis worked the majority of his life with the Sumter County Sheriffs office, where he retired as a Major in 2006. He was an avid hunter and fisherman in his spare time and also enjoyed playing softball whenever given the opportunity. Travis grew up singing southern gospel music with his family and various church groups and took great pride in this legacy. He is survived by his sons: Danny Farmer of Eustis, Florida; Rodney Farmer of Leesburg, Florida; daughter, Sasha Farmer Carroll of Dublin, North Carolina and brother: Ronnie Farmer of Summerfield, Florida. Travis had two grandchildren that were the light of his life: Karson Carroll of Dublin, North Carolina and Kennedy Carroll of Dublin, North Carolina. He is predeceased in death by his wife, Patsy Outlaw Farmer; parents, Jep and Warneta Farmer; brother, Bobby Farmer and mother of Danny and Rodney, Elaine Huett Farmer. A service will be held on Friday, April 9, 2021 at 2:00pm, with visitation from 1:00-2:00pm at Linden Church of God with Pastors Lemuel Miller and Tim Miller officiating. Interment will follow at Linden Cemetery. Arrangements entrusted to Purcell Funeral Home, Bushnell Fl.

“ What a glorious day in heaven when Travis gets there and starts to sing. Travis was the most special person ever involved in my life. He was an amazing human and I will remember and love him always. He was a true lifelong friend and surly made his mark on this world. God bless his family and may they find peace in knowing how much he was loved.
