“ My husband, Sam Pappas, so enjoyed attending the veterans meetings here at Del Webb with you as well as the Retired Officers meetings in Ocala. We loved having you for Christmas dinner and sharing your wonderful view of life. You always had a smile on your face.

“ Bud, it was indeed my honor and privilege to know you. You were very much the hero in the mold of quiet, unsung heroes. No Bravo, just kindness and friendship. You will be missed by all who knew you.
