“ Frances, or as many of her fans at Publix called her fondly, "Grammy"; will be sorely missed. I will remember and always admire this tiny, friendly lady who was always dressed impeccably; with matching jewelry, high heels and lovely perfume. My deepest sympathy to your loving, loyal daughters. Rest in peace Yvonne Rest in peace Yvonne

“ My Dearest Carole, It is with sadness and much love I extend my arms and embrace you in my heart at this time of such heartache and loss of your beloved Mother Francis. She is now at peace in the Lord's place and finally with your Daddy. I'm sure she looking over you with her reassuring smile and her love. I cherish all the wonderful mother/daughter times we shared and Francis will be missed by so many who's lives she touched. Peace be with you Francis and also to you Carole and Jeanne and all your families. I love you. Your forever friend.

“ To The Family of Frances Watson - our sincere, heartfelt condolences on the passing of your beautiful angelic mother who brightened the world with her sparkling smiling and lovely sense of humour. I had the pleasure of meeting her a few times and found her to be so delightful. She was a special lady. I will miss her very much when I visit the Villages. May memories of her comfort you now. With much love, Cathy, Mikey and Anna (Australia)

“ Frances was the BEST. She would make you laugh when you wanted to ignore something and then scamper along in heels. We loved her expression "i love to eat more than ___". In all our trips to FL, if we hadn't done anything else... just visitng her made the trip worth while! Good by "my hero" enjoy being at peace. Love Stevie and Candi
