“ My thoughts and prayers to Kathleen, Frank, Ronald and all who made Uncle Franks last days pleasant. He was a very devout Catholic and I know that God had a place in heaven with his wife Margaret. Many people called him Uncle Frank but I always thought of him as Uncle Frank even though he was just a good friend and not a relative. May he rest in peace. Love ❤️ you Uncle Frank.

If you are lucky enough to call this incredibly humorous and faithful man UNCLE, than you are as blessed as we are. I am thankful that Uncle Frankie moved to Florida so we got to enjoy his company and hear the stories of the Tip Top Bar, Soupy Sales, Ronnie Brillo, his love of prayer, especially soak in or soaking prayer, to name just a few. He loved to tell stories, give an excellent perm wave, pray endlessly, go out to eat, constantly change the batteries in his hearing aids (even when the batteries were still good, he just couldn't hear), laugh and play with the kids, flirt with the ladies, eat pie and more pie and be with family. He always lovingly took care of his wife until she passed. He never missed an opportunity to buy us a lotto ticket and had detailed plans on how we would spend the money. He was a caring and sharing person that never missed a birthday. He gave the children a card with money and impatiently waited at the table for a piece of cake. I would sit and watch him quietly thinking of how much he reminded me of his mother, Grandma Mary. Uncle Frankie will be missed, but his beautiful memories and his Members Only jacket will remain with us forever. Farewell Uncle Frankie, I hope you are dancing the Polka in Heaven.
