“ Dearest Peg (and Nevan) - we are so sorry and heartsick to hear of Frank's passing. What fun, wonderful memories we have of him when you lived in Edgewood. Remember when I had Amos, my horse, on the corner lot? Your house was my second home when you guys first moved there! I wanted so much to come to the service in Cape May. Nev, I hear you look like Jack Sparrow now! What happened to my Joe Namath? I'm having some issues with the M.S. My walking isn't so good, and I try to avoid funerals and weddings when I can. Not to be funny, I really wanted to see you both. Peg, what can I say to make things better? You are in our thoughts and our prayers, for peace and acceptance in the time to come. We love you.

“ Dear Peg and family, Just to let you know that I am thinking of you. I worked with Frank for over ten years in the Construction Office in the City of Cape May (still there) and always looked forward to visits north after retiring to Florida. I was in Florida at time of funeral. Sorry I could not attend. Frank always had a smile on his face, and a draft beer in his hand. My parents went to Woodrow Wilson in Camden with him. We will miss him.
