“ First time I met franky Cunningham . I knew my aunt Paulette had her soulmate at first just after knowing each other for only one month and then they got married and now I believe in love at first sight . And they were two of a kind together till death do we part . Franky was and amazing person beautiful smile and was the best thing that happened to my aunt Paulette Cunningham and her four kids treated them like he would his own taken to soon but I believe God takes the best no matter how young you are ...I know it's easier to be called home in heaven then left behindone day we will all be together in time we all love you gone not in sight but forever in are hearts and minds ..RIP Franky Cunningham ...Now are angel above watching over my aunt Paulette and the kids and grandkids. Love ya. Rose Young and Steve young the hole family ..XOXOX
