“ Dear Frank, I read that getting a hole in one is a golfer's ultimate dream which requires great skill and lots of luck. It 's a rare event with odds estimated at 1 in 12,500 for an average golfer. I remember that You did get a hole in one and how excited you and all your golf buddies were(beer for everyone)! I like to think that you are playing golf with your friends at the most beautiful golf course in Heaven and having fun trying for another hole in one. ❤️
