“ Shirley, Ellen, Melinda & family, It was with profound sadness that we learned of Frank's passing, sincere condolences to you all. Frank was a nice man, I enjoyed our visits, and always forever grateful for the hospitality extended to me and other young Sailors in '79 or '80 when visiting from Mayport and the ship. Frank, the retired Sr. Chief understood, and smiled knowingly while listening to our many sea stories...And sure he had many more as we were all so young - and junior. Prayers & blessings from MN on behalf of my family and Don (Marlys) Schuetz

“ Shirley, Ellen and Melinda, My condolences on your loss. Memories of our few visits to your home in Clearwater, and your visits to MN. Your family has always been special to us, and such an amazing lifelong friendship you (Shirley) shared with our Mom. I will remember Frank as a gentle, strong, capable and quiet man - and so very nice. Much appreciation for his long service to our country. I am sure he is at peace now.

“ There have never been words created that are good enough to properly console, or comfort, during losses such as this. But, it is the heartfelt and sincere gesture that we will frustratingly always attempt, as we try in vain, as loving friends, to take away pain from those we love. Thinking of you during this awful time, and sending warmth snd gentle hugs, with love.
