“ Uncle Tarzan was the life of many parties, but he was also a real family-oriented man. As a kid we always looked forward to seeing him because he was so much fun, like a big kid himself. And he was always quick to volunteer to help any way he could, no matter what the job was: need someone to watch the kids for an hour, Uncle Tarzan would, need someone to dig out your septic drain field by hand, Uncle Tarzan would. I remember he even let the girls play dress up and put make up on his face! He just loved making us smile! Aunt Vickie called me to tell me he had passed and she made me laugh when she said she could picture my mom in heaven looking up when he walked in and saying, "What the hell are YOU doing here?" R.I.P. Uncle Tarzan. I love you so very much.

“ We love you Frank and we know you loved us as well. You were always looking out for us, Bailey especially. I don't know anyone who drop everything to help a friend faster than you. I'll always be grateful for you. Rest easy my friend. With love, Leigh Ann, Marvin & Bailey
