“ There are some people you just remember, for their big smile, their personality, or just how nice it was to be around them. My uncle Frank was one of those people to me. Although its been several years since i saw him last, i can still see him clearly at all the birthday and graduation party's the family had. I remember his voice and how much he reminded me of my grandfather. I hope my uncle is resting peacefully, and has gone to a place where he can still share his great personality and that big smile.....I'll miss my uncle.

“ Judy, I am so so sorry. We were just talking about Uncle Frank at my Daddy's funeral. About what a "HOOT" he was and how he'd make you laugh until you couldn't breathe! We talked about the stories of he and my Dad and the crazy stuff they did together. I will forever remember the good times we had as a "family". Those times seem to be getting less and less. Everyone seems to be leaving. My heart goes out to you! As I mourn the loss of my Daddy, you not only have to mourn the loss of your brother, but now for your bestfriend, companion and partner in crime :-) I love you Judes! Michelle & Frank I KNOW WHAT YOU FEEL RIGHT NOW! I can't deal with this myself. Everyday seems like a dream that I wish I would just wake from. I long to see my Dad's face or hear his voice. I want a hug!! Call me...maybe we can help each other get through this. You have my number. I LOVE YOU GUYS...my favorite cousins.
