Obituary of Frederick Daly

Frederick 'Cy' Daly, native of Bridgeport, CT. A decorated veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps, Cy was wounded in action serving in the South Pacific theater during WWII. Following the war, Cy attended the University of Connecticut where he began a degree in Business Management, while also playing as a guard and Team Captain for the UConn 'Huskies' basketball team. Cy transferred to the University of Bridgeport where he finished his degree, while making important contributions to the UB 'Purple Knight' basketball and baseball teams.

Cy began his professional career as a management trainee with Raybestos, Inc. in Stratford, CT. His career with the company ended with his retirement as President of Raybestos Manhattan Friction Materials, 37 years later.

Cy was a lifelong athlete, earning numerous championship titles in team and individual efforts at basketball, bowling and golf. He was also an avid swimmer, even into the last weeks of his life.

Cy Daly was predeceased by his wife of 47 years, Evelyn, and is survived by his six children, nine grand-children, and one great-grandchild.

He will be missed.

Private services will be held in Connecticut during Thanksgiving.

“ Judy, Dan Sorry to hear of your father/father-in-law's passing. We so love hearing stories of this wonderful, witty and solidly grounded man who contributed to the betterment of his family, friends, colleagues and community. This is a huge loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Love, Tom and Teri
