“ Thinking back it's been 25 years I've known you. You watched me go from a little girl to a young woman. You played my music at every show and most recently shared a beer with me by your pool. I'm going to cherish your show t-shirt that says DJ and make sure everyone knows it's yours when I wear it. I'll never stop smiling when I think about how happy you were when we had those little girls call out to you on stage and say, "Play the music Mr. Fred!" You will be missed forever, but I know you're up in heaven playing the music for everyone else to dance to. I love you.
