“ Today is his birthday, February 7, 2025. An appropriate time to share. I worked briefly with Fred at the NY Stock Exchange. There for many years. Instantly like him and Myrna. Fred was very personable, a true professional, great sense of humor and the nicest boss I ever had in my working career. I always appreciated his genuineness. We both shared the “ski” at the end of our names. Grateful to have known him and to still think of the great heartfelt memories we shared. Although it’s been some time since seeing each other, we were connected on Facebook thank goodness. Was always nice to see him, Myrna and celebrations and good times they shared with family.

Fred, thanks for being who you were. It was a pleasure to have known you over the years on this planet. You made a difference in so many lives. Happy 82nd birthday pal. I have a lot of “ski’s” up there from my family. Hope you all connect spiritually. Miss you!
