“ Deacon Fred always had words of wisdom to share on our phone chats prior to me being ordained a deacon in 2012. My wife Denise and I had the pleasure to meet him and his wife Mary Ann last year on a visit to Florida. Peace to Deacon Fred and all those mourning his loss.

“ My sincere condolences for the loss of your Husband. I know that losing a mate can be a difficult time in life. One thing that has helped me is to think about the hope that is given at Jo 5:28,29 where God will remember our dead loved ones and will bring them back to life on earth so that they can enjoy living forever with us in peace as God originally purposed. Ps 37:11,29 One day God will wipe away all tears of sorrow and death and pain will be no more. Rev 21:3,4. May you find comfort as I have in these promises https://tv.jw.org/#en/mediaitems/VODBibleTeachings/pub-jwbcov_201405_5_VIDEO

“ My Thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time of loss. Growing up I fondly remember the summers I spent at Ledge Lake with Fred and Lucy. It was such a wonderful part of my childhood. He always had the biggest smile on his face. May perpetual light shine on him and may he rest in peace in the arms of the Lord. Much Love to all, as he always called me Franannie.
