“ We will always remember Freddie, smiling, dancing, rolling that smooth bowling ball down the lanes at Classique, and watching the dogs playing every day at 4pm! He really enjoyed that and there was always a soft chuckle when the dogs were tumbling over each other. He will be missed! Don and Linda Snyder

“ Mr. Messina epitomized a life well lived. In the end, all that really matters is what you leave behind. Mr. Messina leaves behind three children who all grew into successful adults. His three grandchildren are following in their parents footsteps and are his gift to the future. I work with Mr. Messina's son Mark and Mark is a storyteller. Even though I only had the opportunity to meet Mr. Messina once, I now have a face and a personality to go along with whichever anecdote Mark is telling at the time. Mark shares his family with his co-workers and his training classes and everyone he works with feels as if they too are losing a very dear friend. Even though Mr. Messina is gone his memory will live on because Mark will continue sharing his memory with his classes through little parables which begin with... "Let me tell you about my Father"...

“ Very sorry to hear of Mr. Messina's passing. He was a great Dad. I remember playing on his Cornwall Little League Baseball Team with his son, Mark. Mark, Michael and I would go to Lloyd's in Newburgh with him on Sundays (when it was closed) and play in the aisles. Great memories. It has been many years now, but I hope that the Messina Family is doing well. God bless you.
