

Fredrick Joseph Mang

April 30, 1950 - October 16, 2020

Fredrick J. Mang, 70, of Eustis, Florida, passed into glory on October 16, 2020. He was born in Beech Grove, Indiana, to Eugene Mang and Marygene (Young). Rick worked as an electronics technician on medical equipment until he retired. He attended St. Andrew's Chapel in Sanford, Florida, and enjoyed studying the Bible. Rick loved the Lord and served Him with gladness. He is now absent from his body and present with the Lord.

Rick is survived by his wife, Alison; his brothers John (Linda), Michael (Laurie), and William Mang; nieces Jenna Reed, Courtney Suderman (Matthew), and Samantha Olsen (Tilden); nephews John David (Christina) and Josef Mang; and several great nieces and nephews.

The viewing and service will be held at St. Andrew's Chapel, 5525 Wayside Drive, Sanford, Florida, 32771 on Friday, October 23rd. The viewing is at 9:00 a.m. with the service at 10:00 a.m.

“ Rick was an awesome teacher and story teller of the Word Of God. We were privileged to have been students of his. We were also honored to have called him our friend.

Alison our deepest condolences. Rick has left a void in our lives but we have the assurance that we will see him again.

“ Rick was a gentleman and a scholar! He knew the Bible and taught it well. He never passed up an opportunity to share the Gospel. He was a good and kind friend and loved my mom so much. Alison, words cannot convey our sorrow for your loss. He now rests in peace and awaits our arrival. Josie, Bob and Mom.
