Gail loved sewing, baking, and spending time with family. She did everything she could for her family, and loved when they visited her. Gail was looking forward to great grandkids so much that she sewed several quilts specifically for great grandkids, even though none of her grandkids are married.

“ I don't know why, having four kids of her own at home, she decided to take me in during the summers - but she did and i attribute much of my early summer fun to Aunt Gail and Uncle Berry. I have not stayed in touch but I do miss her and will always be grateful for being accepted into the family for at least six summers. May she rest in peace.

“ Gil and I and our girls met Gail and Barry and their children about 40 years ago while camping in Connecticut. We also enjoyed a few vacations with them a trip to Hilton Head, a cruise to Alaska also time spend visiting in Florida. Gail was talented and creative she made beautiful baby quilts, embroidered bags, hand towels also Christmas decorations that I am sure she spend hours on. She also made me a beautiful quilt that I will forever cherish. Gail was a very special, caring and wonderful woman that we all loved and will forever miss! Our love and sympathies to Barry, Lisa, Kevin, Debbie, Scott, Bonnie, Suzanne and the grandchildren. Lisa I am sure Finangan misses her too.
