“ Gene will be missed, I remember all of the fun times that John, Gene and I had when we were growing up. Sadly when we left high school we went our separate ways and lost track of each other. Shelly managed to track us down using Facebook and we were able to get together several times. It seems like all too soon he was taken from us. The thing we must remember is that he is with our Heavenly Father, waiting to welcome us when it is our time. Shelly we love you and pray for your comfort in this time of need. Love, Ron & Debbie
